About Sigmaflux

Sigmaflux is a performance-driven digital growth agency specialising in B2B websites and strategic online marketing. We work closely with brands to help them grow digitally through structured SEO, high-intent Google Ads, and strong marketing fundamentals.

Job Summary

We are looking for a motivated, disciplined and detail-oriented Fresher SEO & Content Executive with good English writing and communication skills. The ideal candidate should have basic awareness or interest in SEO and digital marketing, a willingness to learn, and the ability to think logically about business and marketing.

This role includes SEO execution + content writing support (blogs, website content, on-page SEO content etc.). Training will be provided — but the candidate must be willing to learn, think independently, and apply concepts practically.

Key Responsibilities

- Assist in keyword research and competitor analysis
- Support on-page SEO activities (meta tags, headings, internal linking, URL structure, etc.)
- Help in off-page SEO & link-building activities
- Write & edit SEO-friendly content such as blogs, on-page content, descriptions etc.
- Update content and SEO fields on WordPress
- Track website performance with Google Search Console & Analytics
- Prepare basic SEO & content performance reports
- Stay updated with SEO trends & best practices
- Understand client businesses and help align SEO & content strategy accordingly

Skills & Requirements

- Freshers welcome — internship or basic SEO knowledge is a plus
- Good English writing & communication skills are mandatory
- Ability to write clear, structured and simple content
- Logical thinking & analytical mindset
- Basic awareness of SEO concepts preferred
- Willingness to learn tools such as SEMrush, Ahrefs, Ubersuggest etc.
- Basic WordPress familiarity is a plus
- Ability to take responsibility & follow structured processes
- Team player with a positive learning attitude

Qualities We Value

- Strong interest in digital marketing
- Curiosity & willingness to learn
- Ownership & accountability
- Discipline & consistency
- Attention to detail
- Long-term commitment mindset

What We Offer

- Structured SEO & content training
 - Opportunity to work on real client projects
 - Learning exposure across multiple industries
 - Supportive work culture focused on growth
 - Pathway to long-term digital marketing career

Important — Who Should Apply

This role is ideal for someone who:

- Wants to build a serious career in SEO & Digital Marketing
 - Has strong English & writing ability
 - Is willing to learn and apply logical thinking
 - Values growth, stability and commitment
